LEXINGTON, Mass., June 15, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSO MILLER:

DEAR SIR.—For the alleviation of human suffering I feel it my duty as well as pleasure to certify to the following facts in my case.

The past spring I was severely afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism, suffering nights utterly sleepless and in pain, without the least cessation, the most excruciating pains I ever knew. My doctor who practiced in my family for over thirty years or my entire natural life, and in whom I still have the most confidence, said that "medicine would do me no good—he could not help me, time probably would, and in six or eight weeks I might have relief." In the meantime I tried gum and soap, but that was not disposed to do so, and in my despair on reading of the first Sciatic Rheumatism under the name of Quaker or Patent Medicine, or any other, previously promised relief. It happened that this was so

WM. D. PHELPS

We append are the above testimony in full.

G. G. GOODWIN & CO.

Mr. Phelps is a gentleman and family well known in this community, and for the past forty years has been recognized by our ship-owning merchants as one of the most reliable of Boston pilots, ranging from the port of Boston. This testimony is genuine and speaks more than a column could express in favor of the great merits of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

This medicine is prepared by a careful, experienced and conscientious physician, in obedience to the desire of numerous friends in the profession, and trade and among the people. Every bottle is warranted to contain the full strength of the remedy as it is in its highest state of purity and development, and is superior to any medicine ever compounded for this terrible complaint.

In diseases of this sensitive organ, delicacy and confidence in the most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles. By this simple and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away, as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

This medicine is for sale at all druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, have him to send for it from any of the wholesale druggists in Boston, Concord, N. H., Worcester, Providence, Portland, Bangor and other places.

Price $1 a Bottle.

E. S. DEAN.

Bangor, Aug 1, 1875. 3w34

To the Hon. Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, next to be holden at Bangor, in and for the County of Penobscot, on the second Tuesday of October next.

Respectfully represents Ellen Tunney, of Orrington, in the County of Penobscot, and State of Maine, that on the 6th day of September, A. D. 1870, she was married to James A. Tunney, that ever since her said marriage she has lived in this State, and conducted herself towards the said James A. Tunney as a true, faithful and chaste wife; that the said James A. Tunney, during the years 1872 and 1873, did wantonly, and without any reasonable cause, and contrary to the duties of the marriage relation, desert your libellant, and live with another woman, and has ever since his said marriage, conducted himself towards the said libellant in a wanton, unkind and cruel manner; that the said James A. Tunney has been guilty of the crime of adultery with divers women whose names are unknown to the libellant, but he will ask leave of this Honorable Court to add the same when he can be communicated to the libellant, and from which she suffered for a long time; that he is very intemperate in the use of intoxicating liquors, often becoming drunk, that one year ago he left the libellant and since that time has furnished her with no aid and support.

Wherefore, the said Ellen Tunney prays right and justice, and that the said Court will grant her a decree from the bonds of matrimony with the said James A., if it seems it reasonable, and propounds exclusively to domestic harmony and consistent with the peace and morality of society.

And your libellant alleges further that she said James A. Tunney has left this State, and she has exercised great diligence to learn where he now is, but his residence is not known to said libellant, and cannot be ascertained by reasonable diligence.

ELLEN TUNNEY.

Bangor, Aug. 31, 1875.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Aug. 31, 1875.

Personally appeared the above named Ellen Tunney and made oath that the allegation in said libel concerning the residence of the libellee is true. Before me

T. W. VOSE, Justice of the Peace

PENOBSCOT, ss. Clerk's Office, Supreme Judicial Court in vacation, Bangor, Aug. 31, 1875.

Upon the foregoing libel ordered, That the libellant give notice to the said libellee to appear before the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court to be holden at Bangor within and for said County of Penobscot, on the second Tuesday of October, A. D. 1875, by publishing an attested copy of said libel, and this order thereon, three weeks successively in the Bangor Weekly Courier, a newspaper printed at in Bangor in said County of Penobscot, the last publication to be thirty days at least before said term, and that in case the said libellee shall not then and there appear and answer to said libel, if they see fit, they the prayer of said libellant should not be granted.

JOHN APPLETON,

Chief Justice of the Sup. Jud. Court.

Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Pains or Sores in the Chest or Side, Rheumatism, all Kidney, and every affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, are quickly and permanently cured by Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which does not dry up a cough and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most nostrums, but loosens the phlegm, allays irritation, and heals the lungs, thus relieving the cause of the complaint.

Consumption Can Be Cured

by a timely resort to this standard remedy, as is proved by hundreds of testimonials, unsurpassed from all parts of the country. Those who have used it for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Pain in the Side, Chest or Lungs, and Consumption, in its early stages, have been surprised at the rapidity with which it cures them. Public speakers find it just what they need. Military officers and soldiers should have it in their knapsacks. Singers and actors use it to clear the throat and voice. Mothers should have it for their children. Many who have used it for Consumption, after the lungs were half destroyed, and all other remedies had failed, have been restored to perfect health by its use. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Aroostook.

The Tribune says that the Aroostook Co. Lodge of Good Templars was held with Beacon Light Lodge, of Hersey, Tuesday, Aug. 31st, with G. W. C. T., G. H. Donham in the chair. Owing to the fine harvesting weather, there were but few delegates present, but the county lodge was placed upon a firmer working basis.

Hancock.

CASTINE. An excursion party from Ellsworth of some 600 persons, landed at Castine from the barge "Clifford" on Monday, Aug 30th. The barge remained about four hours and the excursionists were delighted with their jaunt to Castine; in the meantime the hotels had as much as they could do to attend to the wants of their guests.——The elegant steam yacht "Lookout," Lorillard master and owner, from New York, arrived here last week. This steamer is said to be the most perfect vessel ever built in this country. A party of tourists are in town from St. John, N. B., boarding at the Acadian hotel for a few days.——Camp meeting to Perkins' grove, North Castine, will continue through the week, commencing on the 6th inst. The steamer "Arrow" is to make four trips each day from here to the grounds, during the term of meetings.

Kennebec.

The Journal says that a mail dog, foaming at the mouth, was shot on Water street, Augusta, Friday. His condition was discovered before he did any damage.

Stephen Church, of Farmingdale, who was so badly gored by a bull two weeks ago, and taken up almost dead, is getting better, and there are good prospects of his recovery. He says that the bull tossed him about until the animal himself became perfectly exhausted, and left him in his agony.

COLBY UNIVERSITY. The fall term of Colby University opened Thursday. The chair of mathematics is now filled by Prof Warren, late of New London, N. H. The new Freshman class numbers thirty-eight. The Sophomores have gained one since last year by the coming of a Bates man Mr. Matthews; and the Juniors one by the addition of a Harvard man, Mr. Lord. Arrangements are in progress to give the students regular gymnastic training and instruction in the manual of arms. Drs. Crosby and Wilson of Waterville, are to become superintendents and instructors.—Every room in the dormitories is now occupied, and some of the students room in town.

The Journal says that Messrs. E. W. Woodbury, N. G. Wakefield and H. A. Shorey, of the Board of Trustees, made the quarterly inspection and settlement of accounts of the Insane Hospital Wednesday. The inspection was quite thorough, and the Trustees express themselves as highly pleased with the present condition of the hospital. There are now four hundred patients in the institution. Messrs. Foster & Dutton are making good progress on the new chapel and amusement hall, and will undoubtedly have it ready for occupancy by the first of December

Lincoln.

The Damariscotta correspondent of the News writes There is a small round hole about the size of a pistol bullet, in one of the window panes of Mr Sumner's store The gentleman who came in to see if his revolver had been fixed, when he took it up from the work bench and playfully snapped it, "didn't know it was loaded."

The News says that potatoes never looked in better condition than now, being uncommonly large and fair, showing very little comparative signs of rotting.

On Saturday a Waldoboro boy fired a charge of shot through a window in Gilbert Kuhn's house. The blind and sash were broken, but fortunately no one was hurt, as the room was not occupied at the time.

Joseph Wood, editor of the Oracle, and R. J. T. Taylor, express agent, have constituted themselves a committee to preserve from decay the old Block House at Edgecomb Contributions are solicited.

Penobscot.

The Gazette says that the annual meeting of Dexter & Newport Railroad Company was held at Dexter, Wednesday. There is no change in the officers for the ensuing year, except that Mr. E. B. Holt of Corinna, was chosen a director in place of Robert Knowles.

Mrs. Wm. Harris of North Dixmont, and Miss Mary Perry of Boston, while driving through Plymouth, Thursday afternoon, ran into a team belonging to Parker Holt, and Mrs. Harris was thrown out of the back of the wagon, and injured so seriously that she died in three hours No blame is attached to Mr Holt.

MARCELLUS EMERY AS A CHAMPION OF THE SOLDIERS

The success of his canvass inclines to dowdy and among them may reasonably be counted the appearance of Marcellus Emery as champion of volunteer citizen of the rights and interests of Maine soldiers After days of silence he has vouchsafed them their hereafter by his dependence upon the votes of a Democratic House of Representatives for appropriations for their pensions sugar-coating with his assumed friendliness a palpable threat in case the soldiers behave well at the polls that part's vast appropriation may be cut One can imagine the ghostly wink with which Emery and his allies would labor to provide for pensioning the Union veterans of the ranches of those who fell in what Emery and Pillsbury have so frequently denounced as an UNHOLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL WAR and which L G Madigan declared was "THE GREATEST CRIME SINCE CALVARY"

Oh yes Emery Pillsbury Madigan & Co are very anxious that the Boys in Blue, for whom they had such sympathy when in the field shall be well taken care of by a Democratic Congress made up largely of officers of the Rebel Army!

The latest outbreak of Marcellus Emery at least in behalf of the soldiers has taken the shape of a spiteful and characteristically dishonest attack upon Capt Edward S Small a gentleman of whom it should be sufficient to say that in this community, and especially among the soldiers of Maine he is esteemed as heartily as Emery is despised. The editor of the Commercial starts out with what we can only designate as an unblushing lie in declaring that nearly all the soldiers of this Congressional District have signified their purpose to support Gen Roberts at the polls That did not choke him so he goes on to superadd another infamous and deliberate lie in denouncing Col Smith's letter as a dirty and scurrilous document. The utter falsehood of those adjectives as applied to the historically truthful and scrupulously dignified and courteous letter of Col Smith is known to every one who has read it. Its readers also know that Marcellus Emery is incapable of writing anything so manly and decorous and that no single statement of the letter has ever been contradicted More than this both Emery and Gen Roberts know that every word of that letter is truth and truth expressed in the mildest and most considerate form Daring to meet its arraignment in a candid and manly way they abuse Col Smith and deliberately lie about his letter The next falsehood in the article in Gen Roberts military organ is the assertion that the special effort has been made to secure the circulation of copies of those letters by soldiers, and that Capt Small's services in that respect were sought on account of his connection with the military Mr. Emery counts little upon the brains of his readers or he would perceive that the circular which he publishes signed by "E E Small, Chairman Republican City Committee" shows that gentleman to have been engaged in his capacity as city committeeman in the perfectly legitimate and very commendable work of circulating a formidable, unanswerable and unanswered Republican campaign document It will be also be noticed that he does not follow Gen Roberts' example in prefixing a military title to his signature to political circulars

It would certainly make a "war horse" laugh to hear Marcellus Emery, the immaculate patriot the enthusiastic hopeful the soldiers' friend gravely and severely remarking that

"It remains to be seen in what manner the members of the old Second Maine and the members of this section of the State generally will regard this conduct of Captain Small"

Now, we should make allowance for the patriotic emotions which must have been surging beneath Marcellus' waistcoat when he indicted those solemn words But after all, may there not be room for doubt as to whether Gen Roberts carries in his breeches pocket all the veterans of that gallant regiment which he left facing the enemy, while he came home to join that other army of which Marcellus Emery and Eben F. Pillsbury were the Brigadiers? Eben F. Pillsbury were the Brigadiers? On the record as made up from history in Colonel Smith's letter we think that the soldiers of the Second and every other "true blue" regiment from Maine will fail to see just why they are called upon to support Gen Roberts for his military services, as against Gen Connor who did not leave his men in the field in the darkest hour, because "Abraham Lincoln went to bed a while man and got up a nigger" And on the whole we do not believe that the officers appreciate the manner in which Marcellus Emery is recruiting sergeant is calculated to stimulate the enlistment of soldiers under the banner followed by Gen. Roberts since 1862

We not only think but we are sure that Emery's unpertinent attempt to dragoon one of the finest military companies in the state by insulting its popular and efficient commander, will prove entirely disastrous to Gen. Roberts favorite fugler. The members of that company will resent—as he would if living—the affront perpetrated by the editor of the Bangor Democrat in seeking to drag the name of the gallant and lamented JAMESON into political association with himself.

It would appear that Gen Roberts and his friends must think that the soldiers of this State are fools or they would know that when he permits Marcellus Emery to make drafts upon them in his behalf, the paper thus dishonored in the drawing will meet with indignant protest Nor is there any sense in Gen Roberts' claim to the votes of the Second Maine, which he left at the front at the time when he was most needed and for which no other occasion he has failed to manifest the utmost regard. The members of that Regiment undoubtedly remember that one of the first acts of Gen Roberts when appointed to a Federal office by Andrew Johnson, was the summary dismissal from a subordinate position of a brother officer of the same Second Maine a captain in his own regiment and a soldier whose bravery had been attested by wounds from whom he could never hope a full recovery. And that brother officer, that wounded comrade, was dismissed by Gen Roberts from the position which he held under the United States Government for no other reason than because he was a Republican and in order to fill his place with a Democrat of the blatant rebel-sympathizing stripe But Gen Roberts was looking for the applause of Copperhead leaders then, and not for the votes of soldiers including those of the Second Maine!

We have no fear that the soldiers of this section of the state generally will fail to place an entirely proper estimate upon the flings to their support which are so arrogantly put forth by Gen Roberts through Adjutant Emery

[From the Portland Press]

ONE FOR GEN PLAISTED

In looking over the files of the Daily Press for 1864 we came across the following letter addressed to Mayor McClellan by then H M Plaisted Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth District

HEADQUARTERS 1st BRIGADE,
——— Island Feb 3 1864

MY DEAR SIR—I have the honor to state that if my Regiment have agreed to credit to your quota in consideration of $200 each Their names with the agreement have been sent to Adjut Gen Hodsdon Upon being credited to your city you may please deposit the money, including ten (10) dollars per man for recruiting with the State Treasurer, subject to the orders of those men, for $210 each

I claim the ten dollars per man offered by you only for the benefit of the men it is satisfactory enough for me to make sure of the bounties for them These boys who have slept on the sand who have undergone every hardship and privation braved every danger met by three years for thirteen dollars a month, and who now go for three years longer well deserve all the money they can get. Their conduct is deserving the highest admiration. Only those who have witnessed their toil and privation can fully appreciate their constant and patriotism, for be assured money is not the inducement. The old soldiers feel that this is a war to maintain their Government that it is their business to help carry it on and consequently they have determined to see it out

Very respectfully yours
H M PLAISTED

It may be added that Mr Madigan, though a very fine man, was at this time in common with the Democratic leaders discouraging enlistments by denouncing the war as the greatest crime since Calvary and by predicting that the rebellion could never be subdued

At the same time, too, Gen Roberts, who at the first was a gallant soldier had sheathed his sword and returned home to join Marcellus Emery & Co in denouncing the Government and doing all they possibly could without fomenting armed rebellion to help the rebels in arms On the other hand, GEN CONNOR and GEN PLAISTED were at the front Some people say that those things should not be remembered The majority of those who sympathized with the Government think otherwise

OPINIONS DIFFER.

MR MADIGAN has been a resident of Aroostook County over thirty years, and no man during all that time has ever known him mingling politics and religion even in the remotest degree.—Shepard Bandy in Bangor Commercial

"Mr Madigan addressed the assembled voters of the plantation on SUNDAY preceding the election, from the steps of the CATHOLIC CHAPEL in Madawaska"

* * * "The revenue officer from Houlton MR MADIGAN, taking his stand at the polling place by the side of the window through which the votes were deposited indefatigably maintained his position throughout the entire time of balloting Here he could deliberately inspect every voter's ticket and from this inspection no man did or could escape. The penal statutes upon the sin of that window do to this day, to the number of forty-five, affect the industry and thrift with which Mr. Madigan drove his boat less transactions on the Madawaska Exchange that day."—Hon. J. S Pike's official report on the Madawaska fraud.

"MR MADIGAN PAID MY FRIENDS TO KEEP STILL;" * * * "HE GAVE MONEY TO THE WOMENS." * * *

"MR. MADIGAN HAD A BAD EFFECT ON PEOPLE HERE; LEARNED THEM ALL TO TAKE MONEY FOR THEIR VOTES." * * * MR MADIGAN COUNTED THE VOTES IN THIS PLANTATION ON ELECTION DAY"—Sworn testimony of Francis Thibodeau

DYING SPEECH,

BY H. BEECHER-HOWARD.

On tawny hills in casted splendour glow'd,
Of rugy purple and of tarnished gold,
Now hills some Eastern monarch sad and old,
The disappointed summer limb down to rest!
A mournful mist hangs o'er the woeful plain
O'er wrapped records that stole down plain clad knights,
And wine red woods where song be more delights,
But only wounded birds cry out in pain.
A pain I goes I agree in the sky,
Pain seems of wilding flowers it at in the air
All nature's voices murmur in sequence—
"We summer crowned be lagged—soon to die!"
But with a regal smile, one whispers, "Cease,
If life is joy and triumph, death is peace!"

ITALIAN SLEEPING-CARS.

And here let me enter a sturdy protest against the false little paragraph which is thrust into our home papers, every few months, that there are no sleeping-cars in Europe. We Americans have got lots of good things at home, but we have not everything, and it is high time we left off expounding our ignorance and making unfounded boasts about our possessions and our advantages. There are not in Italy sleeping-cars on the American gregarious principle, I admit, and there will not be for a long time to come; but at no time during my residence has there been any want of vehicles built for the night accommodation of travellers, just as a party giving timely notice can always have a saloon-carriage to themselves by paying for the eight or ten places which make up the minimum charge. Until recently night carriages have been costly, but the Upper Italian Company has made a great advance in plan and price. They build some of their first-class carriages longer than usual leaving the end compartments with their eight places of the ordinary models. The two intermediate sections of each only three, and divided next to the converted into a good bed by drawing out movable sections and uniting the necessary mattresses etc. Provisions for complete undressing is not to be expected but water and toilet conveniences are provided in the cabinets which separate the two sleeping sections. The charge for the extreme distance from Turin to Florence is fifteen francs and to other points in proportion. There were several of these carriages in the train on the evening I speak of, going to Turin, or Milan, and all the places were occupied. Undoubtedly it is a great convenience when the pains do still allow a set of cars purely for sleepers, but they must be smaller and lighter than the Pullmans, more like what I undertand the Miami car to be. The very steep grades and the crooked tunnels on the Florence-Bologna section will not allow the addition of huge and cumbersome cars to an express train of the usual composition. But for the present the Italian carriages provide all the room required and they are clean easy and roomy and they may be found at the terminus of all the sections of the Alta Italia. The Roman and Mediterranean Company offer no such accommodation, but those roads are both holding on by the eyelids uncertain whether they see each up into ruin or not, and have no money to spend on unnecessary luxuries.—Rome Correspondent Boston Globe.

TRICKS OF SPEECH

From the Christian Intelligencer.

Nothing is easier to acquire nothing more difficult to lose than a trick of speech and mannings. Once acquired it will incline among our friends and acquaintances we shall find scarcely one who has not his favorite word his perpetual formula, his automatic action, his unmeaning gesture—all tricks caught probably when young, but, as not being corrected then, next to impossible to abolish now. Who does not know the familiar "I say" as the preface to every remark—and the still more familiar "you know" as the middle term of every sentence? Who too, in these latter times has not suffered from the infliction of awful and jolly "smile-scenes in the path of specially interested with even uglier and more distressing signs of folly and corruption—milestones that are forever turning up all showing the successive distances to which good taste and true refinement have receded in the hideous race after slang vulgarism and youth is given. Then there are the people who perpetuate ejaculations, who say "goodness" as a mark of surprise and "goodness gracious me" when surprise is a little more with reproduction—lower in the sequence it is "My word!" "Fiddlesticks!" "Did I ever!" and indifferently in all stages. You don't say so!" or in a voice of deprecation, "No and indeed, ma'am!" In judge by tone and word the especial people to always in a state of surprise. They go through the world in an indignation-meeting, and their appeals to their goodness and their unbelief are painfully called great on all occasions. In the generation that is with us the tenth Greek the favorite ejaculation seems to be "By Jove" and the George with the accursing into the region of "God" and "By Jingo!" Before them we had the blank and lusty oaths imposed on "Goddamkins" and "swabnails," with other strange and uncouth oaths that are not suited to offend the hearers but were simple tricks of speech caught by the speakers sounded as the habit of swearing and many had no less generally. It is emphatically a habit trick of speech—meaning for the most part no more than the "goodness" of the minister's talk.

A RAILWAY ACCIDENT for the last two years I have been waiting for the impatience of our public to communicate in some recent against an annoyance so small that its mention at it may possibly provoke a sneer but the endurance of nuisances. World any other people in the world can do hour to have, every ten minutes, hideous dirty Times or Herald or Herald over the hat laps a novel of Miss Braddon flung upon the lap at large twenty prize candy spread on the large box of withered figs a paper of peanuts or pop-corn or apple sprays thrust into their hands every that grows on trees stuck under the nose—but who go with the same? Every body who travels knows the nuisance. Every body who rides offering nuisances in a Pullman Palace car has been sorely attacked by a greasy novel flung upon her bosom every gentleman has been blasphemed for allowing his precious package of prunes and figs to drop upon the floor. I once heard the gentle protest of a lady but the young villain answered. "You needn't be afraid of em—they won't bite you."
